

Visual Resource Management Classes Alternative C

Map 2-4

- Class 1 - To preserve the existing character of the landscape. The level of change to the characteristic landscape should be low and not attract attention.
655,968 Acres
- Class 2 - To retain the existing character of the landscape. The level of change to the characteristic landscape should be low.
472,359 Acres
- Class 3 - To partially retain the existing character of the landscape. The level of change to the characteristic landscape should be moderate.
721,045 Acres
- Class 4 - To provide for management activities which require major modification of the existing character of the landscape. The level of change to the characteristic landscape can be high.
629,471 Acres

